

The Weald Federation

Of Five Ashes, Frant, Mark Cross and Mayfield Church of England Primary Schools

With God's love we grow and learn together

With God's love we grow and learn together to inspire every child and adult to flourish within our community. Through our Christian ethos, excellent teaching and shared learning, we aim to encourage everyone to discover who they are in relation to God, the world and others. This is in order to prepare for, and positively contribute to, our ever changing and diverse world.

School Workforce Privacy Notice

Led by:	EHTs
Date implemented:	January 2026
Date for next review:	September 2026
Approved by:	EHTs
ESCC policy or school?	ESCC

Privacy Notice (How we use school workforce information)

We process personal data relating to those we employ to work at, or otherwise engage to work at, our school. This is for employment purposes to assist in the running of the school and/or to enable individuals to be paid. The collection of this information will benefit both national and local users by:

- improving the management of workforce data across the sector
- enabling the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- informing the development of recruitment and retention policies
- allowing better financial modelling and planning
- enabling ethnicity and disability monitoring; and
- supporting the work of the School Teachers' Review Body

The categories of school workforce information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- personal information (such as name, employee or teacher number, national insurance number)
- special categories of data, including characteristics information such as ethnic group, disability/access requirements or other medical information
- contract information (such as start dates, hours worked, post, roles and salary information)
- work absence information (such as number of absences and reasons)
- qualifications (and, where relevant, subjects taught)
- images (such as photographs)

Why we collect and use this information?

We use school workforce data to:

- enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the workforce and how it is deployed
- inform the development of recruitment and retention policies
- enable individuals to be paid
- recruit and employ staff
- preserve the school's history and collective memory

The lawful basis on which we process this information

Under current data protection legislation, the school must identify a valid, lawful basis for any data processing they carry out. We process personal data in relation to staff using the following lawful bases:

UK GDPR Article 6 (1)

- Processing is necessary for the performance of a contract to which the data subject is party or in order to take steps at the request of the data subject prior to entering into a contract;
- Processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject;
- The data subject has given consent to the processing of his or her personal data
- Processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

- Processing is necessary for the purposes of carrying out the obligations and exercising the specific rights of the controller or of the data subject in the field of employment
- Processing is necessary for the purpose of preventative or occupational medicine or for the assessment of the working capacity of the employee.
- Processing is necessary for reasons of substantial public interest.
- The data subject has given explicit consent to the processing of their personal data.
- We are required to for reasons of “public health”, for example, during a pandemic

Please see the school’s Special Category Data policy for more information about how we process this type of data. This policy can be found at <https://thewealdfederation.org/federation-policies/> .

Where we keep records and information containing personal data for a longer time, we do this for archiving purposes in the public interest. We keep these records to preserve the school’s history, key events and collective memory. We will provide access to these records for research or statistical purposes, taking reasonable measures to protect the personal data they may contain.

Collecting workforce information

We collect personal information via

- Application Forms
- Annual declarations
- Workforce data is essential for the school’s operational use. Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain school workforce information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing workforce information

- We hold data securely for the set amount of time shown in our retention schedule. For more information on our data retention schedule and how we keep your data safe, please speak to the school office.

We will keep a limited and reasonable amount of personal information for a longer time, where it appears in records that are of historic value or it is in the public interest to keep as part of the school’s history and collective memory. We store these records securely in our school archive for permanent preservation.

Who we share this information with

We routinely share this information with:

- Statutory sharing with our local authority
- the Department for Education (DfE)
- our local diocese

- Traded services purchased through the LA (e.g. for Legal, Human Resources or Information Governance Support)
- Learning platforms or software providers used by the school to support education provision

We only share data with organisations that have adequate security measures and protections in place.

Why we share school workforce information

We do not share information about workforce members without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Local authority

We are required to share information about our workforce members with our local authority (LA) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

Department for Education (DfE)

The Department for Education (DfE) collects personal data from educational settings and local authorities via various statutory data collections.

We are required to share information about our school employees with our local authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 5 of the Education (Supply of Information about the School Workforce) (England) Regulations 2007 and amendments.

All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls which meet the current government security policy framework, available online.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

For privacy information on the data the Department for Education (DfE) collects and uses, please see: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/privacy-information-education-providers-workforce-including-teachers>

Requesting access to your personal data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold. To make a request for your personal information, contact your school office.

Depending on the lawful basis above, you may also have the right to:

- to ask us for access to information about you that we hold
- the right to be informed about the collection and use of your personal data – this is called 'right to be informed'.
- request for your personal data to be rectified, if it is inaccurate or incomplete
- request the deletion or removal of your personal data where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing

- object to the processing of personal data in certain circumstances
- prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- object to decisions being taken by automated means
- to restrict our processing of your personal data (i.e. permitting its storage but no further processing); and
- a right to seek redress, either through the ICO, or through the courts

There are legitimate reasons why we may refuse your information rights request, which depend on why we are processing it. For example, some rights will not apply:

- right to erasure does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is a legal obligation or public task.
- right to portability does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is legal obligation, vital interests, public task or legitimate interests.
- right to object does not apply when the lawful basis for processing is contract, legal obligation or vital interests. And if the lawful basis is consent, you don't have the right to object, but you have the right to withdraw consent.

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

For further information on how to request access to personal information held centrally by DfE, please see the 'How Government uses your data' section of this notice.

Withdrawal of consent and the right to lodge a complaint

Where we are processing your personal data with your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent. If you change your mind, or you are unhappy with our use of your personal data, please let us know by contacting the school office.

Data Protection Officer

Sarah Oxenbury (East Sussex County Council, Information Governance Team, Children's Services)

However, please contact the school in the first instance if you have a query regarding this privacy notice or how your information is used.

How the Government uses your data

The workforce data that we lawfully share with the DfE through data collections:

- informs departmental policy on pay and the monitoring of the effectiveness and diversity of the school workforce
- links to school funding and expenditure
- supports 'longer term' research and monitoring of educational policy

Data collection requirements

To find out more about the data collection requirements placed on us by the Department for Education, including the data that we share with them, go to <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>.

Sharing by the Department for Education (DfE)

The DfE may share information about school employees with third parties who promote the education or well-being of children or the effective deployment of school staff in England by:

- conducting research or analysis
- producing statistics
- providing information, advice or guidance

The Department for Education (DfE) will only share your personal data where it is lawful, secure and ethical to do so and has robust processes in place to ensure that the confidentiality of personal data is maintained and there are stringent controls in place regarding access to it and its use. Decisions on whether the Department for Education (DfE) releases personal data to third parties are subject to a strict approval process and based on a detailed assessment of public benefit, proportionality, legal underpinning and strict information security standards.

For more information about the Department for Education's (DfE) data sharing process, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

For information about which organisations the Department for Education (DfE) has provided information to, (and for which project) please visit the following website: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/dfe-external-data-shares>

How to find out what personal information the DfE holds about you

Under the terms of the Data Protection Act 2018, you're entitled to ask the DfE:

- if they are processing your personal data
- for a description of the data they hold about you
- the reasons they're holding it and any recipient it may be disclosed to
- for a copy of your personal data and any details of its source

If you want to see the personal data held about you by the Department, you should make a 'subject access request'.

See the guide for details:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/requesting-your-personal-information/requesting-your-personal-information#your-rights>

Further information on what personal information the Department for Education (DfE) holds about you is published in the privacy notice for education providers' workforce, including teachers. This is available below:

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/privacy-information-education-providers-workforce-including-teachers>

To contact the DfE: <https://www.gov.uk/contact-dfe>